CES has conducted over 1000 school BOT elections during the last 12 years. Our skilful staff have an implicit understanding of the process.

Option A: CES returning officer service - we undertake every aspect of the election

Our returning officer will work closely with your school's designated staff member to administer parent/student/staff elections and gather and tabulate the results. We will:

- prepare a time-line for the election/s;
- call for nominations by distributing nomination forms
- create a website to receive nominations;
- prepare advertisements and flyers for circulation;
- prepare rolls of parents/caregivers and staff;
- liaise with staff who are eligible for both staff and parent rolls;
- receive and check nominations and candidates' statements
- distribute voting papers and reply envelopes;
- monitor the electoral process, count/tally votes;
- declare and advertise the final election results, notify the school;
- complete documentation for the Ministry of Education;
- file the election results with the District Court.

Option B: Your school runs its own election with the support of CES digital technology

- create a website to receive nominations;
- CES technology makes the process faster and more transparent;
- your school is set-up with a unique website-based portal where candidates can upload their nominations, profiles and photos. You can see into the portal to track progress and download pre-populated forms for the election process
